Encouragement Challenge

Tell them something good they are doing in their life at the moment.

How did you complete the challenge? How did it go? Write your thoughts below:

A large, light-colored rectangular area with a thin pink border, containing seven horizontal lines for writing.

Give them a message of hope for the uncertainty of the future.

How did you complete the challenge? How did it go? Write your thoughts below:

A large, light-colored rectangular area with a purple border, intended for writing. It contains seven horizontal lines for text entry. A purple rectangular tab is attached to the top edge of this area.

Be real and tell them about your failures: (this could encourage them in their failures as they learn about yours and how you responded, overcame, and grew!)

How did you complete the challenge? How did it go? Write your thoughts below:

A large, light-colored rectangular area with a purple border, intended for writing. It features a purple tab at the top center and seven horizontal purple lines for text entry.

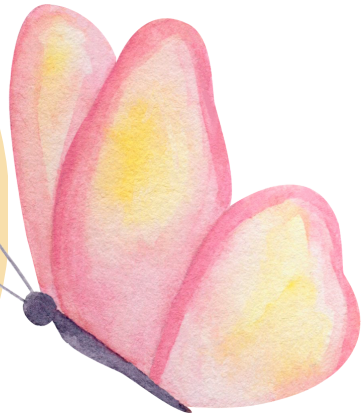

Tell them how they have enriched your life/made your life better.

How did you complete the challenge? How did it go? Write your thoughts below:
